FISCAL NOTE

HB 1035 - SB 1002

February 22, 2011

SUMMARY OF BILL: Creates, subject to requirements of the United States and Tennessee Constitutions, a good faith exception to the exclusionary rule for searches and seizures in state court prosecutions. Maintains any existing civil remedy for illegal searches and seizures not covered by the good faith exception.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumption:

- The Tennessee Supreme Court does not recognize a good faith exception to the exclusionary rule under the Tennessee Constitution. State v. Carter, 16 S.W.3d 762,768 .8 (Tenn. 2000). This bill is expressly subject to federal and state constitutional limitations. Since under Tennessee Supreme Court precedent the exclusionary rule is a constitutionally implied limitation, statutory enactment of a good faith exception will have no impact on prosecution or adjudication of criminal cases.
